The King's School, Langley, BC - Assistant Principal

Applications are now being accepted for the position of Assistant Principal of The King's School commencing in the 2019-20 school year. We are a K-12, closely-knit community with approximately 135 students. We are seeking an Assistant Principal to be part of a team to move us forward in growth and development in the years to come. It is our desire to find a person in whom God is moving to build on the well-established foundation of our school community.

Since 1982, our school has been situated on 23 rural acres in the Township of Langley and is near rapidly growing neighbourhoods. We seek to partner with parents in equipping children in the development of Christian character, a biblical worldview, and the pursuit of academic excellence.

We are seeking an Assistant Principal who is a team player, desires to integrate biblical thinking into all areas of learning, works to facilitate growth, and has some Christian school leadership experience. This position also includes up to 50% teaching time.

Qualifications:

We seek applicants who possess the following characteristics and skills:

- A vibrant Christian faith, modeling a vibrant, active prayer life and personal walk with Jesus
- Able to integrate the Gospel into school life
- Has demonstrated experience as a successful teacher
- Strong servant-leadership skills
- Able and willing to collaborate with parents, staff, and the School Board
- Able to build relationships and community in a positive school climate
- Able to develop personal relationships across all age groups in the school community
- Effective and positive communication skills
- Well-developed organizational skills
- Familiarity with the BC Education Curriculum
- Able to provide direction in curriculum development and planning, new initiatives, use of technology, evaluation, assessment, and learning styles
- Knowledge and experience with staff evaluation and development
- Holds or is eligible for a BC teaching certificate
- Post-graduate training in the areas of administration and instruction an asset.

Application process:

Please email a cover letter, résumé, philosophy of Christian education, and statement of faith to the Board Chairman, Stephen Hall shall@tkc.com. Also include contact information for a pastoral reference, professional reference, and colleague reference.

Open until filled.
